*"I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help,
I want the hand of A.A. always to be there. And for that: I am responsible."*

BROKEN ~ WINGED BIRD

I'd sunk low in the depths of despair.
Feeling friendless, lost & alone.
Helpless & ever sensitive,
Like a frail & broken-winged bird.
hope,

I knew not where to go or how to fly;
So I prayed & the Lord hearing my plea~
Came at once to remove my guilt from me.

The hope He instilled, helping me to mend.
free
So that little by little, I'd fly again.
me.

Today I'm soaring ten feet high,
Never again afraid to fly.

Not to be captured, just to be free.
Free to fly and free to be me.

To share my experience, strength and
So that maybe others can learn to cope.

God blessed my life and took from me
The broken-winged bird I used to be.

Today I know what it means to be
And I give to others as God gave to

Never be afraid to fly,
Just spread your little wings and try~

And all of life will come to you
As God protects you thru & thru.

FROM THE ARCHIVES

We have in our collection a pamphlet which is mentioned in the Back to Basics book as one of the guides for early beginners meetings. Published by Paragon Press in Washington, D.C. in September 1944, this pamphlet provided basic material for discussion in early AA beginners meetings.

Alcoholics Anonymous-An Interpretation of our Twelve Steps

It contains suggested topics for a 4 week course for beginners emphasizing the fundamentals of our program. Each section ends with the disclaimer “not a shortcut to AA but a help.”

The Twelve steps are divided into 4 parts.

1. The Admission.

Step 1. Are you an alcoholic? There are 32 suggested test questions similar in content to the 40 Questions pamphlet.

2. Spiritual Phase

Step 2. Turn to the spiritual for guidance

Step 3. Lost power of choice—have to make a decision

Step 5. Purpose of this step is plain—do exactly what it says

Step 6. Let His will direct us to remove defects

Step 7. Prayer and humility

“Humility—the virtue of being ourselves”

Step 11. Prayer for guidance in the morning

Prayer of thanks at night “when lonely, confused, uncertain—we pray”

3. Inventory and restitution

Step 4. Honest, searching, fearless moral inventory

Step 9. Make peace with ourselves and others

Step 10. A check on our progress

4. Active work

Step 12. Three parts

1. Spiritual experience “the educational variety”

2. Carry the message

3. Practice the principle

VOLUNTEER WANTED

Do you like filing? Can you sort or type? Are you somewhat computer literate? Is organization “your thing?” Is AA history an interest of yours? If you answer “Yes” to the some of the above questions then you are just what we need in the Archives. Come on in and volunteer.

PI/CPC District 32

In 1956, the Public Information Committee of the General Service Board was formed to better inform the public about Alcoholics Anonymous. Literature is valuable and important part of our AA program and attracts roughly 2% of all new members. If you know of a group or profession in need of information or would like to set up an information meeting about AA or alcoholism please contact Barry T. PI/CPC District 32 at PICPC@adaytona.org Service work- Volunteers are needed to distribute literature in the Port Orange / South Daytona Area on a weekly, bi-weekly basis.

“It comes down to “one drunk carrying the message to another drunk,” Bill W.

Experience, Strength, and Hope

"In recovery there are no losers, just slow winners."

I remember being in early recovery and feeling so bad that I just knew it wasn't working. I'd tell my sponsor about it, and I can still hear him saying, "Michael, you're exactly where you should be, and that's exactly what you should be feeling right now." At first I thought he was just handing me a line, but after a while I believed him and learned to trust in the slow progress I was making in recovery.

Years later I'd hear other newcomers complain about how bad they felt and about how terrible of a day they were having. I can still hear the old timers ask them if they had a drink that day. "No," they'd respond. "Then no matter how bad you think you're doing, when you lay your head on your pillow tonight you're a winner." It was comforting to hear that back then, and it still is today.

Now that I've been in recovery a while I understand the wisdom in this week's quote. It doesn't matter what you're going through in recovery or how you feel, the fact that you are in recovery, that you have a program, and that you're developing or improving your conscious contact with a power greater than yourself means that you've already won. You may feel like a loser temporarily, but most of the time and in the long run you'll live a life filled with the joys and miracles of recovery.

Over time you, too, will come to see that in recovery there are no losers, just slow winners.

The A.A. Tradition

The fourth Tradition: "Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or AA as a whole."

As always, freedom brings responsibility. Because each group is autonomous, it's up to each group to avoid any action that might harm AA. And there have been such actions—or this Tradition would be unnecessary. "Implicit throughout AA's Traditions," Bill W. wrote, "is the confession that our Fellowship has its sins. We admit that we have character defects as a society and these defects threaten us continually."

But wherever two or more alcoholics are gathered together to practice AA principles, it is an AA group if they say it is. And you are a member if you say you are!

The Twelve Traditions Illustrated

FELLOWSHIP=Faith, Empathy, Learning, Love, Openness, Wisdom, Self-worth, Hope, Insight, Pease.

My sincere thanks to all of you for your sobriety, for without yours I would not have mine.

Thanks

anon

I pray that gratitude will bring humility-
I pray that humility will bring me to live a better life.

Committees, Coordinators and Intergroup Updates

Office Coordinator's Report by Mike D: There were a total of 118 calls and 189 visits to Intergroup for February 2013. We had 3 help calls reported for the month; two just wanted to talk to someone and one needed a ride to a meeting. They were handled by 12 steppers.

We have resurrected the calendar for planned events..it contains info that helps avoid conflicts.

All Anniversaries should be submitted to admin@adaytona.org and should include Name, Month and full Sobriety Date.

Desk Volunteers are needed for permanent and fill-in positions. Minimum requirement is 1 year sobriety and some computer knowledge. Contact the office for more info.

We have T-shirts, Sweatshirts, Mugs and new Jewelry items for sale. Quantities are limited.

Archives Committee by Carolyn C: Mary O. volunteered to help with some of the work we do in the archives. She will help with digitalizing the remainder of the Rich Walker papers by scanning into the computer for preservation in the cloud. We are continuing to redo the inventory of all material in the archives room. We now have our email address set up, archives@adaytona.org, and will have a policy & procedure manual for future reference.

Phone Army Coordinator by Hallie D: There was only one call reported from the Phone Army volunteers....please remember to send reports in. We still need volunteers!!

12 Step Coordinator by Jan M: Everything is status quo. We are always in need of more 12 Steppers; please let your fellow group members know. I will be updating the current 12 Step lists this month. I would appreciate your letting the 12 Steppers in your groups know to be expecting my call, and (if not home) how much a return call from them is needed to remain in the 12 Step list. Thank you.

Corrections Committee Coordinator: We are always in need of volunteers willing to make a commitment to take recovery into the prisons.

High 'n Dry Editor: Thank you so much for your submissions and your feedback. It is much appreciated. Send any info to editor@adaytona.org.
