*"I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help,
I want the hand of A.A. always to be there. And for that: I am responsible."*

'Twas the Night of My Bottom...

'Twas the night of my bottom
and all through the house,
not a creature was stirring,
not even my spouse.

The bottles were strewn
on the living room floor,
as I crawled around hoping for a drop left to pour.

Then all of a sudden
there arose such a clatter,
I raised up my head
to see what was the matter.

It was two policemen
at my open front door.
They looked down at me
all sprawled on the floor.

"Been driving tonight?"
the mean one demanded,
"Oh no, occifer!" I slurred, with a look so confounded.

"I've been here all night,
cleaning my house."
The state of the place
said 'Home of a Souse'.

"We have to take you in,
you've run someone down.
you fled the scene,
you're coming downtown.

To make a long story short coz I really can't remember, that wild, drunken night
when I ran someone over.

But that first night in jail
with the room all awirling and the subsequent trial was enough for me quitting.

Today as I sit here,
I'm smiling and sober.
It's been several years
but I still remember

The night of my bottom
was a gift in disguise.
It left me two choices
to sink further or rise.

A Higher Power, sponsor, 12 Steps and Traditions,
service and fellowship
brought better conditions.

AA is the difference between heaven or hell-
So thanks to AA
For this story to tell!!!

History in the Making

District 19 Gratitude Banquet

On Saturday, October 30, 2010 District 19 held their annual Gratitude Banquet, which was sold out. Earlier that week, I had decided that a road trip was in order. Every so often, I need to get out of my comfort zone and head out to a different AA locale. This serves many purposes. Most importantly, it reminds me that I am part of a larger fellowship and that the 1st Tradition prevails. It reminds me of early sobriety when we would all pile into one large car and practice sobriety together. I love road trips and I especially loved this Gratitude Banquet.

They presented an AA skit that was a spin-off of "The Wizard of Oz". There were so many funny parts that one month later, I still find myself chuckling at many things. In scene I, Dorothy hawked her little dog Toto to get a drink and (you guessed it!) the bartender was the bad witch! Eventually, Auntie Em started going to Al Anon so she stopped enabling Dorothy. After a drunken night, Dorothy got caught up in a tornado and ended up on the Main Street Bridge. Her comment brought the house down and it was priceless: "I don't think I'm in Orange City anymore!" Dorothy was helped by Linda, the good witch (and her sponsor) who sent her to Serenity Village to find an old-timer called Oz. Her "suggestions" were, "Follow the Fellowship Road" and she gave Dorothy a Big Book to help her avoid temptations (people, places and things). In Scene II, Dorothy found her companions, Scarecrow and the Cowardly Lion. At first, she was scared of the lion until she realized that he was just "an egomaniac with an inferiority complex". In Scene III, they finally found Oz chairing a meeting. By the end of the play, the audience was singing along whenever the song came up, "Follow the Fellowship Road".

The speaker, Kathy, shared an awesome and inspiring message. Thanks to District 19 for a great meal, great entertainment and for service well done!

Words of Wisdom

Yes, there is a substitute and it is vastly more than that. It is a fellowship in Alcoholics Anonymous. There you will find release from care, boredom and worry. Your imagination will be fired. Life will mean something at last. The most satisfactory years of your existence lie ahead. Thus we find the fellowship, and so will you. Big Book, Page 104.

Holiday "Bumper Sticker" Sobriety

Fly with both wings.

Prayer is a first resort.

Serenity changes my attitude.

Two ears. Two eyes. One mouth.

Experience, Strength, and Hope

HOLIDAY SURVIVAL TOOLS

Holidays provide recovered alcoholics with the freedom to enjoy being with friends, loved ones, or simply being happy celebrating alone. Holidays actually bring a lot of joy and growth – the key is to minimize the drama and maximize the fun!

- ❖ MEETINGS
- ❖ PHONE NUMBERS/EMAILS
- ❖ BIG BOOK
- ❖ PRAYER & MEDITATION
- ❖ AN ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE

Holidays come and holidays go... and the difference is how and when we use our tools. So, plan ahead, make sure your spiritual tool kit is stocked and in working order, and most important ---don't forget to use your tools!

The JOKE'S ON US!!!

A Few Holiday Songs

For the alcoholic who's been there and heard them all.....

Do I Hear What I Hear?

I Don't Know If I'll Be Home for Christmas

Hark the Herald Angels Sing About Me

Walking in a Winter Wonderland Miles from my Home in My Slippers and Robe

Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas -
Don't Worry About Me, I'LL BE F.I.N.E.!

12th Step Work – a Call to Action

12th Step work is both inspirational and practical, often the spark that rekindles the fires of shining hope, and at the same time a completely realistic approach to a very tough problem. Few situations arise anywhere that offer a greater challenge to one's ingenuity, resourcefulness, perseverance and the best of his brains than those which arise commonly in 12th Step work. Nor, it should be added, are there many things which man does that require more hard work than is so often needed in the completion of a 12 step task.

In 12th Step work, one is dealing with the most exasperating, stubborn, conniving, prevaricating, baffling, unpredictable, twisted and messed-up human being at large—the drunk. Successful 12th Step work calls for practically all of the virtues and talents given man, and often, even if any A.A. had all of the virtues and all of the talents, they would not be enough.

Yet, 12th Step work offers more drama, more comedy, suspense, thrills and excitement than one will ever find on any movie screen. And it is real. It is life in the raw. It takes care of any idle time that may have been dragging heavily. And it has given to many an A.A. experiences that yield the greatest happiness of a lifetime.

Finally, of course, 12th Step work is certainly one of the surest, if not the surest way of keeping sober. The reason it is so effective is that it almost compels one engaging in it to keep thinking in the direction that preserves sobriety. It is, at the same time, a reminder of what has been and a warning of what could be again.

Excerpt from "The AA Grapevine", October, 1946.

We also have Grapevines for 2005, 2006 and 2008. Kathleen donated a hat made of wire and beads by Eddie R. that she wore at the 50th International Convention as well as an engraved crystal plate that was presented to Patsy R., as a gift when she was a speaker at the Florida State Convention held at Daytona Beach in 1990.

Corrections Committee (Westside) by George C: We need volunteers to help with meetings at the Branch jail. Also, the work camp group is now at 18 AA members from 45. Contact George C. at (386) 789-6109 or gedeco40@hotmail.com to volunteer.

Office Coordinator Report by Mike D.

143 calls and 200 visits to Intergroup during October 2010. There were three help calls logged in the office for this month. Two callers were referred to 12 Steppers. The third called for assistance in handling a drunk and was advised to take him to the hospital. She decided to contact male members of her group for assistance.
