I want the hand of A.A. always to be there. And for that: I am responsible."*

WILLINGNESS

"Honesty, open-mindedness, & willingness is the HOW of the Program."

This slogan is often used in meetings to inform newcomers that THIS is how the program works. The phrase doesn't show up in the textbook as part of our suggested program. It shows up in the "Spiritual Experience" pages IN THE APPENDIX to further explain what spiritual experience means!

*"The great fact is just this, and nothing less: That we have had deep and effective spiritual experiences* which have revolutionized our whole attitude toward life, toward our fellows and toward God's universe." - BB, p. 25 * Fully explained—Appendix II. (footnote)*

*"Most emphatically we wish to say that any alcoholic capable of honestly facing his problems in the light of our experience can recover, provided he does not close his mind to all spiritual concepts. He can only be defeated by an attitude of intolerance or belligerent denial. We find that no one need have difficulty with the spirituality of the program. Willingness, honesty and open mindedness are the essentials of (our spiritual) recovery. But these are indispensable." - BB p. 568 (570), Appendix II, Spiritual Experience*

H.O.W. helps us get started on our own, personal spiritual journey; it is what we need to be able to grasp onto that flimsy reed—to climb onto that broad, roomy highway (where all spiritual beliefs are accepted):

- To honestly face our problems and deal with any touchiness (p 48) or intolerance we may have on the subject of spiritual things;
- To open our minds to the possibility that there IS one who has all power and cares about us;
- To be willing to investigate and explore spiritual options, so that we may begin the journey toward daily conscious contact with the Higher Power (as you understand God—today).

FROM THE ARCHIVES – Why We Have Traditions

More from the introduction to the Traditions Workshop which was presented at the State Convention in Orlando in 1997.

WHY WE HAVE TRADITIONS

“A.A. must make everlastingly certain that we always shall be strong and single-purposed enough from within, to relate ourselves rightly to the world without.” Written in the August 1946 Grapevine by Bill Wilson. In the April 1946 Grapevine Bill wrote, “Twelve Points to Assure Our Future” which was the long form of what were to become the Twelve Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Events which changed AA and spurred its growth were the publication of the Big Book-Alcoholics Anonymous (1939), the articles in the Cleveland Plain Dealer (1939), Liberty Magazine (1939), and the Jack Alexander article in Time Magazine (1941). Also accelerating AA's growth was the publicity received from the Rockefeller dinner in 1940. The New York office was swamped with written requests for help and no longer was direct personal contact the only means of carrying the message.

By 1944, AA had 360 groups and about 10,000 members. There were requests for advice on various problems concerning singleness of purpose, non-endorsement, group membership, autonomy, anonymity, and public controversy. There were inquiries about procedure, practice and occasionally theory. Bill's answer would usually be “If I understand correctly, your problem sounds similar to...” On that occasion, these good people, now years sober, tried...Of course, it is for you and your group to work this out: I can only relate to you what we have seemed to learn from past experience. Perhaps you and your group will choose to follow this, but whether you do or not, please let us know how it comes out.”

Bill used the Grapevine to share with the membership his thoughts about the trial and error process that resulted in AA's spiritual principles of Recovery, Unity and Service. He also used it to articulate his vision of what the fellowship could become. In articles from August 1945 through November 1948, he defined the need for and explained the Twelve Traditions.

In the summer of 1950 at the first international convention in Cleveland, the Traditions unanimously received final approval, assuring unity for the future of a fellowship that was only fifteen years old.

EXPERIENCE, STRENGTH, AND HOPE - From the Editor

The time has come for the Spirit of Rotation to continue. My term as the Editor of the High & Dry will be concluding at the end of 2015. We are currently looking for someone to take over the position. It is a 2 year, non-voting position on the Steering Committee of the Volusia County Intergroup. If you have knowledge of Microsoft Word and familiarity with Microsoft Excel, a willingness to serve, and a few extra hours per month, you are qualified. Please email me at Editor@adaytona.org for more information.

I can't believe how the time has flown by. I have learned about you, about me, about sobriety, about AA, and so much more in these short years and I am excited to pass that along to someone new. Thank you, Volusia County, for the privilege to serve.

- In Love and Service, Amanda R., Editor

THE A.A. TRADITION EIGHT

Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever non-professional, but our service centers may employ special workers.

Spiritual as it is, A.A. remains very much of this world. The Eighth Tradition, like the Seventh, focuses on a vulgar five-letter word that isn't actually mentioned in either: money. Many of us have had to explain to some cynical prospect, "No, I'm not a social worker. I don't get paid for talking with you. I'm doing it because it's the best way to stay sober myself."

This does not mean, of course, that the idea of turning professional has never entered any A.A.'s mind. In the lean years, Bill W. did think of becoming a lay therapist to earn money through his experience in helping alcoholics. But, with a strong nudge from the group conscience, he soon realized that he could never hang out a shingle reading "Bill W., A.A. Therapist, $10 an Hour"! It became clear to the early members that no A.A. should ever ask or accept payment for "carrying this message to somebody else, person to person and face to face."

But new questions arose as membership grew and the word of hope spread, sending thousands of alcoholics in search of A.A. The first intergroups or central offices were usually manned by A.A. volunteers; now, most such offices are so busy that full-time employees are needed as well. Naturally, A.A.'s are better suited to such jobs than are nonmembers—but these A.A.'s then being paid for doing Twelfth Step work? No. In the office, they are just paving the way for this work. Arranging to get a sick drunk into a hospital, telling a shaky newcomer where the nearest meeting is tonight, they are helping to make it possible for that alcoholic to hear the message "person to person and face to face."

A similar development has taken place at the Fellowship's "headquarters." Once a tiny office for one co-founder (Bill) and one secretary, it has grown into the present General Service Office, fully staffed, with a big mailroom keeping the lines of communication open throughout A.A. worldwide. The employees, both A.A. and nonalcoholic, are paid on a scale comparable to that in profit-making enterprises, so that the office force can function dependably. And the A.A. staff members are in exactly the same position as the A.A. intergroup employees. Suppose you drop in at G.S.O. one day when you're in New York. Staff members who pause to chat with you may have been working on next year's Conference or corresponding with a group in your home area, helping it to carry the message more effectively. For that, they are paid biweekly checks. But you may also hear them mention to other staff member's plans for taking a newcomer to a meeting in the evening or for giving an A.A. talk to a neighborhood group the next week. For that, they are paid only with their own continuing sobriety.

There would be another problem in using volunteers alone: It seems ungrateful—or, at least, it's socially awkward—to criticize or reject a job done for free. But paid jobs for A.A. get quite a going-over! Take our literature, for instance (like this pamphlet). Whatever the subject, we want to be sure that each piece expresses as clearly as possible the view of the group conscience of A.A. as a whole. So any new project must first be approved by the Conference. Once it is in process, the Literature Committee of the General Service Board keeps a careful eye on it at every stage. Frequently, drastic changes are required. The "finished" product then must be approved both by that committee and by the Conference Literature Committee.

COMMITTEES, COORDINATORS AND INTERGROUP UPDATES

Office Coordinator's Report by Mike D.: There were a total of 90 calls and 239 visits to Intergroup for June 2015. There were four help calls. Three people were looking for a ride to a meeting. One person wanted to talk. All calls were turned over to 12 Step Volunteers. The test of 12 Step texting is on hold until late in July.

Archives Report by Carolyn C.: This month while Shirley scans we are also working on updating and continuing to add items to listings in the inventory. District 32 papers are sorted and filed. We have received the donation of the coffee table book containing the story and original manuscripts of the Big Book-Alcoholics Anonymous.

Phone Army Coordinator by Julie G: There were 11 Info calls and two help calls reported

In order to keep our tax-exempt status up to date we need to have all data from the Phone Army volunteers. Please remember to send reports and we are always looking for more volunteers!

12 Step Coordinator by Susan W: Volunteers are still needed in all areas. If you are interested in doing 12 step work and would like to be put on the list, please contact the Intergroup Office. Volunteer forms can also be found on Intergroup's website, www.aadaytona.org.

Corrections Committee Coordinator: We are always in need of volunteers willing to make a commitment to take recovery into the prisons.

High 'n Dry Editor by Amanda R: Please send articles, stories and/or any feedback to editor@aadaytona.org I welcome your comments and suggestions.

Also, there has been a lot of discussion regarding the Bylaws of Intergroup lately. If anyone would like a copy of the Bylaws, please email me and I will be happy to send them to you.

***The Intergroup Representatives from the groups have voted to move forward with the implementation of a texting service to aide with the fulfillment of 12 Step calls. Sign up sheets are available online along with instructions and details.*****
