REAL OR FANCIED

The dictionary defines the word "fancy" as it is used in the Big Book as "imagination or fantasy; a mental image or conception; an idea or opinion with little foundation, an illusion." Our literature tells me that the wrongdoings of others can be fancied in my mind and still have the power to kill. Completely made up. But it feels so real!

So one of the things I've been focusing on lately is asking myself whether the issue I'm facing is fancied or real. If I can have just a few seconds of consideration before I react to a situation, I've found that many times, at least some aspect of it is fancied. At least in part, my fears, my reactions and my thoughts are unrealistic.

For me, the process of getting sober and working the 12 Steps has been a process of planting my feet back firmly on the ground. I try not to let the actions of others control and dominate me like they used to. I am the type of person that will drink "at" you, when I feel like I've been harmed. So yes, these fancied ideas can absolutely kill if I give too much thought to them.

Until I can break free of the chains of alcohol, the chains of spiritual bankruptcy and the chains of dishonesty (with myself and others), I cannot expect to live a serene and peaceful life. Through the steps, I learn to abandon illusion and learn to love reality, exactly as it is right now.

I look to the stars and sometimes ride pink clouds, but my feet remain on the ground.

I CAN

If you think you are beaten, you are; If you think you dare not, you don't; If you'd like to win, but think you can't, It's almost a cinch you won't. If you think you'll lose, you're lost, For out in the world we find Success begins with a person's faith; It's all in the state of mind.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster hand;
They go to the one who trusts in Life
And always thinks, "I can."

FROM THE ARCHIVES

Found an interesting little booklet in our collection called Beginners Manual published by the Greater Milwaukee Central office in May 1973, revised in November 2003. On the cover of the booklet is this statement: "It's not the Price you pay to be a member...it's the Price you paid to become eligible." On the back is another interesting statement: "A.A. won't keep you from going to hell, nor is it the ticket to heaven. But it will keep you sober long enough for you to make up your mind which way you want to go."

Topics in the booklet include:

Alcohol, alcoholism and the alcoholic

- 1. History of alcohol
- 2. Who drinks?
- 3. Why do people drink?
- 4. How people drink
- 5. Alcoholism

What alcoholism does to the body: Neurological disorders, digestive disorders, liver ailment, pancreatitis, nutritional deficiency and cardiac disease, oral cancer, diabetes.

6. Alcohol and the human body

The A.A. Tradition

Tradition Six

Problems of money, property, and authority may easily divert us from our primary spiritual aim. We think, therefore, that any considerable property of genuine use to A.A. should be separately incorporated and managed, thus dividing the material from the spiritual. An A.A. group, as such, should never go into business. Secondary aids to A.A., such as clubs or hospitals which require much property or administration, ought to be incorporated and so set apart that, if necessary, they can be freely discarded by the groups. Hence such facilities ought not to use the A.A. name. Their management should be the sole responsibility of those people who financially support them. For clubs, A.A. managers are usually preferred. But hospitals, as well as other places of recuperation, ought to be well outside A.A.—and medically supervised. While an A.A. group may cooperate with anyone, such cooperation ought never to go so far as affiliation or endorsement, actual or implied. An A.A. group can bind itself to no one.

The sixth of our Twelve Points of AA Tradition is deemed so important that it states at length the relation of the AA movement to money and property.

This Tradition declares in substance that the accumulation of money, property, and the unwanted personal authority so often generated by material wealth comprise a cluster of serious hazards against which an AA group must ever be on guard.

Tradition Six also enjoins the group never to go into business nor ever to lend the AA name or money credit to any "outside" enterprise, no matter how good. Strongly expressed is the opinion that even clubs should not bear the AA name; that they out to be separately incorporated and managed by those individual AAs who need or want clubs enough to financially support them.

We would thus divide the spiritual from the material, confine the AA movement to its sole aim, and ensure (however wealthy as individuals we may become) that AA itself shall always remain poor. We dare not risk the distractions of corporate wealth. Years of experience have proven these principles beyond doubt. They have become certainties, absolute verities for us.

We explain this easily enough; we don't need money. The core of our AA procedure is one alcoholic talking to another, whether that be sitting on a curbstone, in a home, or at a meeting. It's the message, not the place; it's the talk, not the alms. That does the work. Just places to meet and talk, that's about all AA needs. Beyond these, a few small offices, a few secretaries at their desks, a few dollars apiece a year, easily met by voluntary contributions. Trivial indeed, our expenses!

Nowadays, the AA group answers its well-wishers saying: "Our expenses are trifling. As good earners, we can easily pay them. As we neither need nor want money, why risk its hazards? We'd rather stay poor. Thanks just the same!"
