*"I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help,
I want the hand of A.A. always to be there. And for that: I am responsible."*

From Fear to Strength

When I face a fear, I am given courage; when I support a brother or sister, my capacity to love myself is increased; when I accept pain as part of the growing experience of life, I realize a greater happiness;
when I look at my dark side, I am brought into new light;
when I accept my vulnerability and surrender to a Higher Power,
I am graced with unforeseen strength.

- Daily Reflections, p. 62

Being an alcoholic used to mean shame and disgrace. I tried so hard to hide any weaknesses because they were also sources of guilt. Over my few years in AA I have come to realize exactly what the above quote is really telling me.

When I accept the fact that I am human and have fears, when I accept that pain is a part of life and that I can't run from it into a bottle, when I accept that I have a dark side and acknowledge my vulnerability, the Higher Power that I didn't even know was there gets to work great changes in my life.

Today I am able to face my fears, accept pain, realize my dark side and understand that being vulnerable and surrendering are not defects or shortcomings but simply a part of my humanity so I grow and learn how to keep my Higher Power's light shining around me.

The Big Book tells me on page 45 that as alcoholics who want to recover "We have to find a power by which we could live, and it had to be a Power greater than ourselves." "...that's exactly what this book is about."

The more I read the BB, the more I study it as a guide to living, the better I get at being a decent human being. That's something I was never able to do before recovery in AA. For that I am so very grateful.

PI/CPC Public Information/Cooperation with Professional Community

"The A.A. program works when an active alcoholic wants help, and A.A. is on hand to give that help. However, somewhere in the background, there has usually been the help of a doctor, alcoholism agency or facility, relative, employer, teacher, someone who knew about A.A. and where to find it."

This is where PI/CPC can help. With the newly formed PI/CPC committee it is our hope that the many public and professional touch points can and will be reached. WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Want to help the sick and suffering by participating in service work and completing the triangle?

There are many jobs and tasks available, ranging from no time in sobriety needed to multiple years, in a variety areas. Please contact us at PICPC@AADAYTONA.ORG for a list of commitments, services, and goals to get involved, give back, and feel good!

Experience, Strength, and Hope

EMOTIONAL SOBRIETY

Emotional sobriety is what we seek,
It's one of life's pleasant aspects,
We pray and share the message all week,
As we strive to balance assets and defects.

We emphasize love, hope, and tranquility,
And try to eliminate anger, revenge and hostility.

We ask for God's help in this endeavor,
For we know we can't do it alone,
There is nothing sinister or clever,
But the result is a positive attitudinal tone.

The AA. Tradition

THE NINTH TRADITION

"AA, as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve."

The words "Let's keep it simple" were the last Bill W. heard from his fellow founder of AA, shortly before Dr. Bob's death in 1950. Aware that "it" meant our recovery program, Bill later wrote, "We need to distinguish sharply between spiritual simplicity and functional simplicity. . . . When we get into questions of action by groups, or areas, and by AA as a whole, we find that we must to some extent organize to carry the message—of else face chaos. And chaos is not simplicity."

In "action by groups", we find that we do need some degree of organization. If everybody thinks somebody else is going to make coffee, what's the result? No coffee! To avoid such a disaster, one of more members agree to be responsible for preparing meeting refreshments. All the way from coffee-brewers to trustees on the General Service Board, those who take part in AA service work are assuming responsibility—not taking on authority.

The Twelve Traditions Illustrated

IT'S ELECTION TIME AGAIN!

September and October are election times for IGR's. The Constitution and By-Laws of Intergroup set the sobriety time (minimum 2 yrs.) and the term limit (2 yrs.) for the Intergroup officers, known as the Steering Committee. In even years such as 2012 the offices of Chairperson, Vice-Chair, Treasurer and one Trustee need to be filled. In odd years such as 2013 the positions to be filled are the Secretary and two Trustees.

That means that we are looking for committed volunteers to stand for the Secretary and 2 Trustee positions. Other requirements for these positions are stated in the By-Laws and IGRs should have a copy of these. A search committee is out there so please help by announcing this at your groups. At the September IGR meeting, candidates are presented and the IGR's report back to their individual groups for input. At the October IGR meeting, voting takes place and the results are announced in the next issue of the High & Dry. Anyone wishing to stand for these offices must appear at the October meeting or apply in writing before said meeting.

If your group does not have an IGR, please hold a business meeting to elect one so that your group will have a voice in the elections.

Thank you,
The Intergroup Steering Committee
