A.A.'s® Responsibility Statement

"I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of A.A. always to be there. And for that, I am responsible.

Traditions Checklist from The AA Grapevine

These questions were originally published in the AA Grapevine in conjunction with a series on the Twelve Traditions that began in November 1969 and ran through September 1971. While they were originally intended primarily for individual use, many AA groups have since used them as a basis for wider discussion. Practice These Principles….

Tradition One: Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon AA unity.

1. Am I in my group a healing, mending, integrating person, or am I divisive? What about gossip and taking other members' inventories?
2. Am I a peacemaker? Or do I, with pious preludes such as "just for the sake of discussion," plunge into argument?
3. Am I gentle with those who rub me the wrong way, or am I abrasive?
4. Do I make competitive AA remarks, such as comparing one group with another or contrasting AA in one place with AA in another?
5. Do I put down some AA activities as if I were superior for not participating in this or that aspect of AA?
6. Am I informed about AA as a whole? Do I support, in every way I can, AA as a whole, or just the parts I understand and approve of?
7. Am I as considerate of AA members as I want them to be of me?
8. Do I spout platitudes about love while indulging in and secretly justifying behavior that bristles with hostility?
9. Do I go to enough AA meetings or read enough AA literature to really keep in touch?
10. Do I share with AA all of me, the bad and the good, accepting as well as giving the help of fellowship?

Tradition Two: For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority—a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.

1. Do I criticize or do I trust and support my group officers, AA committees, and office workers? Newcomers? Old-timers?
2. Am I absolutely trustworthy, even in secret, with AA Twelfth Step jobs or other AA responsibility?
3. Do I look for credit in my AA jobs? Praise for my AA ideas?
4. Do I have to save face in group discussion, or can I yield in good spirit to the group conscience and work cheerfully along with it?
5. Although I have been sober a few years, am I still willing to serve my turn at AA chores?
6. In group discussions, do I sound off about matters on which I have no experience and little knowledge?

Bill W. Before the Senate

While doing inventory I came across this article take from June 1987 issue of "The Hummer". This is directly quoted with minor omissions "…" Inside brackets [] are my additions.

Subcommittee on Alcoholism and Drugs July 23-25, 1969. Senator H.E. Hughes Chairman of the Subcommittee recalls Bill W's. testimony.

One of the testimonies before my subcommittee that burned into me deeply was by Bill W. He told how he felt that Alcoholics Anonymous had its start in the office of a world-famous psychiatrist. I refer to one of the founders of modern psychiatry, Carl Jung, Bill said, who in the early 1930's received an alcoholic patient from America, a well-known businessman named Rowland who had run the gambit of all known cures.

Rowland came to Jung and stayed with him almost a year. He grew to love this learned and wonderful friend. During this period the hidden springs of his motivation were revealed. He felt then that with this new understanding he had really shed his strange illness for mind body and spirit. … After leaving Jung, Rowland was drinking again in a matter of a month. He returned to Jung, broken and dispirited: Carl, what does this mean?, he asked…. Jung then made the statement which I think led to the foundation of A.A. He [Jung] said Rowland, I thought you might be one of those rare cases who could be made to recover by the practice of my art. But like most who will pass through here I must confess that my art can do nothing for you. Doctor, you are my last resort, exclaimed Rowland. Is there no other recourse? The doctor said, yes, there may be. I am speaking of the possibility of a spiritual awakening if you like a conversion. But, said Rowland, I am a religious man, I used to be a vestryman in the Episcopal Church. I still have faith in God, but I think He has little faith in me. Jung slowly shook his head. No, I mean something that goes deeper than that. I am talking about a transforming of spirit that can remotivate you and set you free from this. Time after time alcoholics have recovered by these means, Jung continued. The lightning strikes here and there and no can say why or how. All I can suggest is that you expose yourself to some religious environment of your own choice…. Rowland joined a group that brought him close to God, had a transformation in his life and was released from his hideous compulsion.

And then Bill told how this businessman passed on his discovery to an alcoholic friend, who in turn was the man who had come to Bill's rescue when he had given up hope.

Out of the eventuated a very sudden spiritual awakening in which I was released from this compulsion to drink, a compulsion on my mind morning, noon, and night for several years, said Bill. I was suddenly released from it. From this developed the Alcoholics Anonymous organization, as Bill and his friends began to help other alcoholics find what they call a Higher Power.

Hope you enjoyed this little article as much as I did. Jim B. Archivist.

Intergroup Announcements

These announcements were presented at the February IGR meeting.

We have a need for the volunteer service positions of intergroup representatives, special events coordinators, and front desk volunteers. Six months or more of sobriety is suggested for all positions. Specific information for the positions follows:

Intergroup Representatives
Our groups do not serve intergroup. They are intergroup. They created Intergroup to serve group needs. Each shares in the common goal to support our mission to reach out to help the suffering alcoholic. All collectively strive to provide services which we could not provide individually.

Our Intergroup representatives attend the IGR meetings to provide direction to and receive accountability from intergroup. They inform intergroup of group needs, events, requests, suggestions, etc., and receive status reports from intergroup. The intergroup representative is the main conduit of information between the individual groups and intergroup. They are the essential piece of our service mission.

If anyone has been recommended to your group with the aid of the meeting directory, website, phone call, or institutional contact, or if anyone benefits from the High 'n Dry, directly, or indirectly, then you may credit the groups who collectively support our primary mission.

Your group may help through financial support but most importantly through volunteer service. We are grateful to those groups who are already involved and hope that every group will join us. Please send an intergroup representative if you do not currently have one.

Special Events Coordinators
Intergroup sponsors four special events each year (two dinners and two picnics). The proceeds from these events are used to support the services to our groups. We are searching for volunteers to coordinate these events for this year. Each volunteer will assume the planning for one event. There are guidelines and historical information available at Intergroup. We ask that the coordinators provide status reports to the Steering Committee.

Front Desk Volunteers
